

WHITEHOUSE STUDENTS PARTICIPATING IN FARM STAY CONDUCT AGREEMENT DECLARATION

Whitehouse Institute of Design, Australia provides a safe and rich learning environment for its students engaged in their formal learning while on campus. Whitehouse also provides opportunities for students to participate in “extra-curricula” activities and events outside of scheduled class times to enhance their formal learning experience.

One of these activities includes “Farm Stay” at Whitehouse’s country property at 69 Ryleston Road BINDA NSW 2583. Attending and participating in Farm Stay is considered the same as if the students were on campus, thus the same Terms and Conditions of being a Whitehouse enrolled student apply, as detailed in the Student Code of Conduct Policy and other relevant Whitehouse policies.

In addition, students must:

- Complete an Orientation program on arrival
- Undertake a WH&S induction in respect to the use of Farm accommodation, facilities, and any machinery and / or equipment
- Sign this Declaration form.
